

Literally Speaking

SEPTEMBER READING EVENT

Zak Sally

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28TH @ 8PM
4 W MAIN ST. VERMILLION, SD

Join us for the Vermillion Writing and Literature Conference kickoff event! VLP proudly presents graphic artist and musician Zak Sally. Sally is from Duluth, Minnesota, and owns and operates his own press, La Mano, in Minneapolis. Sally is also a comic arts professor at the Minneapolis College of Art and Design. He was the bass guitarist for the bands Low and Enemymine and is the singer and guitar player in The Hand.

ABOUT VLP

Literally Speaking is brought to you monthly by the Vermillion Literary Project (VLP), the award-winning literary & creative writing student organization at USD. For more information, visit sites.google.com/a/usd.edu/projlit/home or contact the VLP faculty advisor at cheyenne.marco@usd.edu.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

VLP thanks USD's Department of English and the AV Lounge for their support of this month's event!
